

Position Description – Lecturer in Behavioural Health

Updated 26 November 2024

POSITION DETAILS
College	College of Medicine and Public Health
Organisational Unit	Behavioural Health
Supervisor	Discipline Lead, Behavioural Health
Classification	Teaching Specialist (Academic) Level B
Employment Type	Fixed-term, part-time (0.4FTE) available for 2 years

POSITION SUMMARY
This Teaching Specialist (Academic) position, with its primary focus on teaching and teaching-related activities and has an important role to play in the University's achievement of its strategic plan, Making a Difference: The 2025 Agenda. The University is committed to a student-centred ethos and to developing creative, enterprising, career-ready graduates prepared to become lifelong contributors to society. In accordance with the strategic plan, the University seeks to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • deliver a richly interactive and personalised approach to learning focussed on student success; • be an international leader in educational innovation, advanced learning technologies and learning analytics; and • develop enterprising graduates equipped with the skills required for success in the knowledge economy. The Lecturer in Behavioural Health will undertake independent teaching and related duties across the suite of Counselling topics in the discipline of Behavioural Health. The Lecturer in Behavioural Health will contribute to the development of teaching materials, direct teaching informed by approaches that enhance the student experience, assessment and student consultation including coordinating the planning, delivery and administration of teaching within the suite of undergraduate and/or postgraduate topics/courses within the suite of Counselling Programs in the College. The Lecturer in Behavioural Health will be responsible for making an independent contribution to teaching and the scholarship of teaching using innovations in teaching practices and technologies to deliver excellence in teaching. This will include the development of teaching materials, direct teaching informed by approaches that enhance the student experience, assessment and student consultation.

UNIVERSITY EXPECTATIONS AND VALUES
All staff at Flinders are responsible for understanding their obligations and responsibilities as set out in the University's code of conduct and are expected to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • demonstrate commitment to the University's values of Integrity, Courage, Innovation, Excellence, and the underlying ethos of being Student Centred.

- contribute to the efficient and effective functioning of the team or work unit to meet the University's objectives. This includes demonstrating appropriate and professional workplace behaviours, aiding team members if required and undertaking other key responsibilities or activities as directed by one's supervisor.
- promote and support an inclusive workplace culture which values diversity and embraces the principles of equal opportunity.
- perform their responsibilities in a manner which reflects and responds to continuous improvement; and
- familiarise themselves and comply with the University's Work Health and Safety, Injury Management and Equal Opportunity policies.

A National Police Certificate which is satisfactory to the University will be required by Flinders University before the successful applicant can commence in this position.

Staff working in a health care setting are strongly recommended to be fully vaccinated against COVID in line with the SA Health policy.

KEY POSITION RESPONSIBILITIES

This position is predominantly concerned with teaching and teaching-related duties involving the creation, delivery, and continuous quality improvement of university-level education. It includes (but is not limited to): direct teaching informed by approaches that enhance the student experience; curriculum design and review; delivery innovation; advancements in education technologies; and making an independent contribution to maintaining internal and external compliance and accreditation of courses. The position is also expected to make an independent contribution to high-quality university, professional and community service. The position does not include making a research contribution.

Teaching:

- Create, coordinate and conduct inspiring teaching informed by approaches that enhance the student experience, with a focus on Counselling/Behavioural Health topics, across all levels and modes, of the College.
- Contribute to the planning and evaluation of these topics, undertaking the role of Topic Coordinator as required.
- Make an independent contribution to the review, renewal, development and design of curricula and courses that are attractive to existing and new cohorts of students and that nurture creativity and critical-thinking skills.
- Provide support, academic counselling, clinical supervision, and professional advice to students concerning their studies, professional development and/or career opportunities.
- Make effective use of innovations and technologies in teaching practice.

University, Professional and Service:

- Participate in the College's administrative activities such as membership of committees and working groups and attendance at College meetings.
- Maintain professional knowledge relevant to teaching within their discipline through scholarship and professional development.
- Engage in activities within a relevant external professional domain such as professional associations, conferences and workshops, and within a wider community context at local, national or international level.

- Provide high quality contribution to community service on behalf of the College and University.
- Undertake activities that promote the development of productive partnerships to provide opportunities for students and promote graduate employability.
- Some out of hours work (including weekends) as well as rural SA, interstate and overseas travel, may be required.

Any other responsibilities in line with the level of the position as assigned by the Supervisor and/or the University.

KEY POSITION CAPABILITIES

- Completion of a PhD, or equivalent qualification in counselling or mental health.
- Registration or professional membership with the Australian Counselling Association (ACA), or the Psychotherapy and Counselling Federation of Australia (PACFA), The Australian Health Practitioner Regulation Agency (PACFA) or Australian Association of Social Workers (AASW).
- Experience of significant teaching and learning experience and excellence at a tertiary level.
- Evidence of use of learning and teaching approaches which enhance student success.
- Evidence of successful and independent innovation in learning and teaching delivery or design, including use of e-learning technologies.
- Evidence of professional development of teaching including peer or supervisor reviews of teaching and/or external accreditation processes.
- Demonstrated contribution to academic quality assurance processes, such as topic or course reviews.
- Demonstrated understanding of the nexus between teaching and learning, research and scholarship.
- Experience in coordinating and/or leading the teaching activities of other staff.
- Evidence of student-centred approach
- Good understanding of appropriate assessment techniques – including feedback.
- Demonstrated experience or capability to engage with students (and deliver teaching modules) via online learning platforms.
- Demonstrated excellent oral and written communication skills and interpersonal skills, including the demonstrated ability to establish effective relationships with staff, students and industry.
- Experience with engagement within a relevant external professional domain and within a wider community context at local, national, or international level which could include working parties, committees, professional associations and conferenced workshops.