

2024 CBGL Outstanding Research Publication Award Guidelines

Purpose:

The 2024 Outstanding Research Publication award aims to recognise, reward and promote research excellence.

Nature of the award:

One award of $1,000 will be made under this scheme. The award will be deposited into a university account and must be used by the award winner for research or professional development purposes. In the case of multiple CBGL authors, the award of $1,000 will be divided amongst the CBGL authors. Awarded funds will be available for 12 months.

Eligibility for nomination:

- Teaching & Research or Research-only academic staff member(s) at level A-D of the College of Business, Government and Law;
- Employed in a continuing, contract or fixed term role for a period of at least 12 months.

Award winners will not be eligible for re-nomination for this award for 2 years.

Eligible Activities/Outputs:

To be eligible for award under this scheme the publications must:

- Be either:
  - a journal article published in an A*/Top 10% or A/Q1 journal, as determined by one of the Scimago Journal Rank, Australian Business Deans Council (ABDC) journal ranking list, or CBGL Law Journal list;
  - or an authored research book published by a CBGL preferred publisher, determined by the CBGL Book Publishers List 2022 (for a copy of this list email cbgl.research@flinders.edu.au).
- Have been first published online or in print in 2024.
- Be aligned with the College mission statement of,
We embrace innovative knowledge and practice to tackle the challenges of our time, with a strategic focus on technology, health and social impact.
or one of the College Research Centres/Institute(s).

Applications

Applications must be made on the Nomination Form in the space provided. Up to 2 pages of supporting documentation may be added. No additional documentation will be considered.

Applications should be submitted to the CBGL Research Support Team (cbgl.research@flinders.edu.au).

Assessment of Applications

A Selection Committee will be appointed by the Dean (Research). The Selection Committee's recommendations will be submitted to the Vice President and Executive Dean for approval.

Note:

- All applications will be assessed relative to opportunity.
- Extra weighting given to collaborative research.

Outstanding Research Publication Award

Applications must be submitted by close of business Monday, 18 November 2024.

Applications should be submitted to the CBGL Research Support Office (cbgl.research@flinders.edu.au).

1. NOMINATION DETAILS

Name of nominated staff member(s)/research group
For team nominations, name of Team Leader
Research Section(s) of nominated staff member(s)

2. JUSTIFICATION OF NOMINATION

Please complete the nomination justification section on page 2 of this form. Up to 2 pages of supporting documentation may be submitted but is limited to a CV, evidence of engagement and/or a supporting testimonial (in the case of mentoring). No other additional documentation will be considered during assessment.

3. CERTIFICATION

Nominator Signature
Sign (Digital Signature)

4. JUSTIFICATION OF NOMINATION

Please provide a justification for this nomination

Please note that all nominations will be assessed relative to opportunity and on alignment with the College of Business, Government and Law Mission Statement, or the college research centres/institutes. Please keep this in mind when writing your justification.

[END OF FORM]