

Flinders University Indigenous Student Employment Scheme Expressions of Interest

Are you interested in gaining some experience working in the Higher Education sector?

The Flinders University Indigenous Student Employment Scheme has a wide variety of identified roles to offer on a part time basis for a period up to 12 months (during the academic year) across our campuses. This scheme can be accessed for 2 years in total.

How to apply:

Please complete all fields in Part A and answer the questions in Part B.

Send your completed application form with a current CV/resume that includes your contact details and those of two referees. (This can be an academic member of staff e.g., Course Coordinator, Yungkurrinthe Indigenous Support Officer or previous employers).

Successful applicants will be contacted to take part in a short interview.

Expressions of Interest can be emailed to Julie Rayner, Executive Officer via julie.rayner@flinders.edu.au with the subject 'EOI Indigenous Student Employment'.

Under special measures pursuant to Section 56 of the Equal Employment Opportunity Act 1984 only applications from Australian Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders will be considered for these positions
